Petitions, Reports and Communications

A. Update from the Mayor

Mayor Gavin Buckley
Mayor's Remarks - City Council
May 24, 2021 - 7 p.m.
City Council Chambers

Good evening and Happy Commissioning Week! We want to alert residents that there will be some limitations on parking on Wednesday, please be on the lookout for signs. These are mainly on routes where fire apparatus need to get in and out to water access points

Also, the Naval Academy Route 450 Bridge over the Severn River will be closed mid-day on both Tuesday and Wednesday for the Blue Angels.

On Friday, we will welcome Vice President Kamala Harris as commencement speaker. We hosted her husband, Second Gentleman Doug Emhoff, last week. I don't want us to get ahead of ourselves, but this is a good start to becoming regulars here in our City! We welcome their return visits

Please be alert to your surroundings and give yourself extra time.

On a personal note, watching these young men and women grow and change over the course of four years is something that we here in Annapolis are privileged to witness up close.

In 2017, the class of 2021 came for plebe summer, got their haircuts and their uniforms and began their transformation into the officers that they will become on Friday. On behalf of the residents of our City, we congratulate them on their academic achievements and the beginning of their Naval and Marine Corps careers.

On Sunday, please join me at Peace Park on Calvert Street for an event remembering the 100th anniversary of the Greenwood Massacre in Tulsa, Oklahoma. This event, known as Black Wall Street, will memorialize the days in 1921 when a white mob destroyed one of the most successful, established and wealthy black business districts in the country. I'll be there with County Executive Pittman, as well as local black-owned businesses, local artists and musicians. If you want more information or want to get involved, contact Adetola Ajayi in my office at 410-972-6257.

This weekend, I had the honor to attend the dedication for a new mural at Park Place. I joined members of this council, along with Lt. Gov. Boyd Rutherford, Del. Shaneka Henson, County Executive Steuart Pittman and the public to celebrate.

The mural, by Comacell Brown and his team is of Carr's Beach and shows music and musical acts and families at the beach. It also has that Ferris Wheel that I had promised, checking off a campaign pledge.

In all seriousness, the mural reminds us of the importance of public art and the importance of remembering our history. I thank those responsible for thinking up and executing on this important work and I invite the public to head over to Taylor Avenue to check it out.

I encourage all of you to see the progress of our Independence Day weekend planning on the city website at www.Annapolis.gov. We have a number of community partners who are rolling out the red - and white and blue - carpet for residents and visitors to celebrate the 245th birthday for America.

We want you to make a plan to celebrate. Please get your vaccine. It's free and available at Pip Moyer on Wednesdays and Thursdays as well as daily at Navy Stadium. Second, check out our lineup of events and activities to make a plan for your family. We've got a parade, fireworks, music, art and fun for the kids.

I will be joined in the parade by Governor Hogan, County Executive Pittman, and Admiral Buck to honor those front line workers who deserve our thanks for working throughout the pandemic. If you are a health worker, grocery, pharmacy, hardware, hospitality, public works, public safety, recreation and parks - any worker who couldn't dial in to the job, please join us as we march together in the Independence Day parade on July 3.

Last, Memorial Day is Monday. I invite you to visit the city's Facebook, Twitter or YouTube page for a video that lists the names of the Annapolis fallen from World War Two, and the Korean and Vietnam Wars.

I want to thank Annapolis resident Denise Robinson who partnered with our office of communication to create this poignant video.

While the City will NOT be hosting its regular parade or ceremony, I hope on Monday you will take some time to think about those men and women from Annapolis, from Anne Arundel County, from Maryland, who have sacrificed for our freedoms.

These brave individuals gave their lives. Memorial Day is a day to honor them and their service. We thank them.

Let's carry on with our meeting.

CITY OF ANNAPOLIS NOTICE OF A PROPOSED REAL PROPERTY TAX INCREASE

The City Council of City of Annapolis proposes to increase real property taxes.

1. For the tax year beginning July 1, 2022, the estimated real property assessable base will increase by 1.43%, from $7,190,636,973 to $7,293,446,226.
2. If City of Annapolis maintains the current tax rate of $0.7380 per $100 of assessment, real property tax revenues will increase by 1.43 % resulting in $758,732 of new real property tax revenues.
3. In order to fully offset the effect of increasing assessments, the real property tax rate should be reduced to $0.7276, the constant yield tax rate.
4. The City of Annapolis is considering not reducing its real property tax rate enough to fully offset increasing assessments. The City of Annapolis proposes to adopt a real property tax rate of $0.7380 per $100 of assessment. This tax rate is 1.43% higher than the constant yield tax rate and will generate $758,732 in additional property tax revenues.

A public hearing on the proposed real property tax rate increase will be held at 7:00 p.m. on Monday, May 10, 2021, in the Mayor John T. Chambers, Jr, City Council Chambers located at 160 Duke of Gloucester Street, 2nd Floor, Annapolis, Maryland 21401. Persons with questions regarding this hearing may call 410-263-7952 for further information. Please go to the City of Annapolis website at <<http://www.annapolis.gov/testimony>> for instructions on how to submit written testimony. The Council will accept testimony for seven days following the public hearing.
