

1865 Commissioners:

Tonia Powell

Annapolis 1864 is pleased to have Tonia Powell on our Team. Tonia is employed by the U. S. Supreme Court, is a wife, mother of school aged children. Tonia is also a dynamic member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority working with children to understand their greatness. Her expertise professionally and her work in Anne Arundel County make her an asset to this Commission.

Terry (Mary) Poisson

Terry Poisson, a member of the Anne Arundel County Board of Education -partner in this Anniversary Celebration of Emancipation is an invaluable asset in assuring that this history and Celebration reach the youth of this City and County. In her role as Coordinator of Social Studies, Terry connects directly to the teachers of Annapolis and Anne Arundel County and assists in teaching the importance of this pivotal time in the history of Maryland - The American Civil War.

Kimberli Richardson

Kimberli Richardson came directly to us from the recommendation of the Honorable Rhonda Pindell Charles who had to step down from the Commission during her election to the Annapolis City Council. Kimberli is a lifelong Annapolitan and brings knowledge and professionalism and a sense of belonging to the team as she is from Parole. She has stepped in and is working with all Commission Members to make the 150th Anniversary of Maryland's 3rd Constitution and the Abolishment of Slavery a success.
