Getting Started

Thank you for applying for the Police Recruitment and Retention (PRAR) initiative from the Governor's Office of Crime Control and Prevention (GOCCP). The primary purpose of PRAR is to provide funding to local law enforcement agencies to recruit and retain qualified sworn police officers.

This program primarily supports GOCCP's objective of maximizing public safety by providing funding to support the recruitment and retention of law enforcement officers in Maryland jurisdictions.

Priority will be given to requests that support the objective outlined above as well as the general purpose of this Initiative. If you need application assistance, please contact:
