PROFILE

I have been involved with the marine industry both professionally and personally for most of my life. I am an avid boater, cruising over 10,000 miles from Maine to the Bahamas on the eastern seaboard and in the Pacific Northwest and Alaska. I am also a racing sailor with the Annapolis Yacht Club.

As owner and President of Weems & Plath, manufacturer of fine nautical instruments since 1928, I have been actively involved in maritime issues in the U.S and abroad for over 20 years.

I am a commercial building owner of a maritime zoned business in Eastport (214 Eastern Avenue) and also own a waterfront home on the Magothy River.

I am one of five partners of the Annapolis Boat shows

Other marine related activities:

- National Sailing Hall of Fame citizens advisory board and founding member
- Annapolis Sailing Industry Association member since 2008
- National Marne Manufacturer Association member since 1995
- Annapolis Yacht Club finance committee and member since 1998
