Order and Opinion

Maryland Department of Planning Annual Report for the Reporting Year 2022

November 16, 2023

Background

Each Planning Commission/Board in the State of Maryland shall approve an Annual Report for the Reporting Year 2022 as required under §1-207(b) of the Land Use Article. In addition, this Annual Report shall be filed with the local legislative body and the Maryland Department of Planning. The Annapolis Planning Commission delegates the preparation of this report to the City of Annapolis Department of Planning & Zoning staff. Chief of Comprehensive Planning Eric Leshinsky and Planner Casey Ortiz prepared the annual Report Worksheet provided by the Maryland Department of Planning.

Deliberation And Opinion

At the November 16, 2023 Planning Commission meeting, Eric Leshinsky, Chief of Comprehensive Planning, presented the completed report to the commission. There was a discussion about school capacity in the Annapolis feeder schools of Anne Arundel County Public Schools and the Eastport Choice Neighborhood Initiative which could be influenced by that capacity. Mr. Leshinsky made several updates to the plan to reflect the discussion.

On November 16, 2023 a vote was held and the motion passed 4-0 (Butler, Iams, Pico, Pline) to approve the plan as amended.
