Why are you interested in serving on a board or commission?

Last year I returned to Annapolis after seven years living and working on a remote island ten miles off the Coast of Maine. I have actively begun to settle into the community, and recently was awarded an AIR Artist In Residence at Maryland Hall for the Creative Arts. Last week-end I ran into Hilary Raftovich and Lynn Ferris at the Arts Alive Fundraiser event. I mentioned to Lynn that I had seen her recently because I have been virtually attending the Art in Public Places monthly meetings! It was mentioned that there is a vacant seat on the Art in Public Places Commission. I would welcome the opportunity to serve the city in that capacity. Please consider me for the position. While on the island I had the honor of serving as secretary on the school committee for six years, and also served for six years as board member, co-president, and president for a non-profit sustainable housing association. It was these experiences that ignited my interest in contributing to my local community. Now that I am back in Annapolis, I want to continue this rewarding endeavor.
