We Care and Friends is a non-profit organization in the City of Annapolis that provides Winter Relief Services during the winter months. This service consists of providing shelter and food for individuals with no other option during winter occasions of extreme cold.

This program has been in existence since the winter of 2010 and has been able to house over 400 people in those five years.

To assist in the funding of this program, this transfer requests $5,000 of unallocated funds in Community Grants to be allocated for this program.
