PETITIONS, REPORTS & COMMUNICATIONS

Update from Mayor

Good evening everyone!

I want to start tonight by congratulating the winners of the Sept 16 Primary, but I'd also like to acknowledge and thank all the candidates who put their names forward. It takes courage, commitment and a lot of hard work to run for office. We all have different priorities and approaches, but we all want to make Annapolis better so thank you to all those who stepped up for being brave and working to make a difference.

I also want to acknowledge the effort of our all-volunteer Board of Supervisors of Elections. It's a thankless job and I know they put a lot of energy into it every four years.

Unfortunately, this year, there was an error in the unofficial count on election night when the votes of the two candidates in ward six were swapped. The error was picked up during the final count and corrected - showing that checks and balances in our process work. In addition, the Board issued a formal apology and last Thursday conducted a full audit and hand count to ensure all vote totals were correct. The audit reaffirmed that the official, certified results were right. In particular, the audit result should give some closure to the candidates in Ward Four, where there was a very close result, because the audit reaffirmed the accuracy of the four-vote margin announced in the certified results.

Again, congratulations to all the candidates and we remind voters that November 4 is General Election Day with a new mayor and council sworn in on December 1.

Starting Thursday, the Annapolis Boat Shows are in town for the next two weekends.

The powerboat show is first, then the sailboat show next weekend. For residents, especially in downtown, please give yourself extra time to get around because big crowds are anticipated.

For visitors, please pay careful attention to parking restrictions. Best bet for parking are the garages, where you can pay by the hour or the day. The free magenta shuttle will be running throughout the weekend to help you move around downtown.

I want to thank everyone who came out last Monday for the dedication of a state highway marker to honor the Capital Gazette Five. I particularly want to thank Carl Snowden and the Caucus of African American Leaders, as well as the Maryland Transportation Commission and State Highways who partnered with us on this project.

The mass shooting at the Capital Gazette was one of the major events of my first year as Mayor. I am proud that in my final year we have found another way to remember those we lost that day - Gerald Fischman , Rob Hiaasen , Rebecca Smith, Wendi Winters and John McNamara. As you drive down either side of Rowe Blvd, approaching Grauls Market, you can see the highway markers that will hopefully serve as a reminder of all they gave to our community as well as a meaningful reflection on the power and purpose of a free press.

As members of our Jewish community observe Yom Kippur later this week, we honor this day of reflection, atonement, and renewal. May it be a time of peace, forgiveness and spiritual strength for all who observe.

Now let's get on with our meeting!
