City Council of the City of Annapolis

Ordinance 13-25

Introduced by: Mayor Buckley

Referred to: Finance Committee, Rules and City Government Committee

AN ORDINANCE concerning

Compensation of Mayor, Alderpersons, and City Manager

- FOR the purpose of adjusting the compensation and allowances to be paid to the Mayor, Aldermen and Alderwomen for the term of office commencing on the first Monday in December 2025; and for adjusting the compensation to be paid to the City Manager.
- BY repealing and reenacting with amendments the following portions of the Code of the City of Annapolis, 2025 Edition: Section 3.08.030.
- WHEREAS, On December 9, 2024, under Article II, Section 401(b)(1) of the Annapolis City Charter and Council Resolutions 50-24 and 56-24, the City Council created the 2025 Salary Review Commission ("Commission").
- WHEREAS, The Commission was charged with reviewing the compensation and allowances paid to the Mayor, City Council and the City Manager

WHEREAS, The Charter directs the Commission to submit its recommendations to the City Council -- "...not later than nine months before the date of the next general municipal election" -- and since the next general election is scheduled for November 4, 2025, the Commission's report was submitted to the Council on February 4, 2025.

WHEREAS, The Commission's findings are as follows:

- 1. The Commission reviewed current compensation levels for the Mayor, Alderpersons and City Manager and agreed unanimously that they are inadequate and should be increased;
- 2. The Commission found that the current levels of compensation for the Mayor, Alderpersons and the City Manager are, in many cases, significantly below those offered in other comparable jurisdictions around the country and, therefore, may serve as a disincentive to a wide variety of individuals who otherwise might be interested in serving the City as elected or appointed officials.
- 3. The Commission urged the City Council to exclude from the purview of future Salary Review Commissions consideration and recommendations upon compensation for the City Manager.

"The Commission recognizes that in accordance with Article VI, Section 2B, the City Manager is appointed by the Mayor and confirmed by the City Council and does not hold an elected office. Further, the City Manager is a direct report to the Mayor, and it is the Mayor who is charged under Article VI, Section 2B(d) with establishing their salary in accordance with an executive pay plan." - 2025 Salary Review Commission

WHEREAS, The Commission's monetary compensation recommendations are advisory and included in this ordinance; however, if they are adopted, in whole or in part, they are to be effective for the four years beginning on December 1, 2025.

WHEREAS, On March 24, 2024, under the Annapolis City Charter, Article II, Section 4(b)(3), the City Council accepted the Commission's recommendations.
