

WWW.KUNTAKINTE.ORG

KUNTAKINTE

HERITAGE FESTIVAL

- ANNAPOLIS, MD -

Presented by

KEVIN SMITH & DAVID STANSBURY

FESTIVAL CO-CHAIRS

JAN F. LEE

BOARD PRESIDENT

KUNTA KINTE HERITAGE FESTIVAL

ABOUT US

In September 1987, the Kunta Kinte Celebration was born in Annapolis, Maryland. Now known as the Kunta Kinte Heritage Festival, the festival is a celebration of the perseverance, education, and cultural heritage of the people of the African Diaspora. The festival is a volunteer-run event organized by the 501(c)(3) non-profit organization Kunta Kinte Celebrations, Inc.

2024 NEW LOCATION

KUNTAKINE
HERITAGE FESTIVAL

Navy-Marine Corps
Memorial Stadium

- *More On-site Parking
- *More Vendors
- *Larger Children's Tent
- *Walkable from Clay
Street

KUNTA KINTE HERITAGE FESTIVAL

BY THE NUMBERS 2024

Based on statistics from 2023, and the areas of growth for this year

11K+

Attendees

160

Vendors

3K

YouTube Views

85+

Volunteers

KUNTA KINTE HERITAGE FESTIVAL

FY 2025 GRANT USAGE

- National Talent
- Equipment Rental to Accomodate Change of Venue & Growth of Festival (Stage, Generators, Lighting, Tents, Carts, & Signage)
- Required Insurance
- Certified Accountant for Reporting

KUNTA KINTE HERITAGE FESTIVAL

CONTACT

Website www.kuntakinte.org

E-Mail kuntakintecelebrations@gmail.com

Phone 240-801-5543

