City Council Citation

On behalf of the residents of the City of Annapolis, we are pleased to confer upon you this City Council Citation in recognition of your retirement from William Reese and Sons Mortuary where you have provided compassionate service to residents for more than five decades. You began your remarkable career as one of the first African American women to become a licensed mortician in Maryland, marking a legacy as a trailblazer and a symbol of strength, resilience, and dedication. You have served our community with unwavering kindness and support, bringing comfort and solace to countless families during times of loss and grief. Your care, skill, and empathy have been an essential part of Reese Mortuary's legacy and Annapolis's history. In your downtime, you are a proud and dedicated fan of the Pittsburgh Steelers, an enthusiastic bowler, and an avid player at the slots. We know that, alongside your husband of 17 years, your four children and five grandchildren, you will have enjoy a fulfilling retirement. We wish you joy, relaxation, and endless happiness!
