13
14 A RESOLUTION concerning

15
16 Racial Equity in Media

17
18 FOR the purpose of encouraging racial equity in all forms of media.

19
20 WHEREAS, On June 21, 2020, the Capital Gazette Editorial Board published an article titled 21 “Our Say: The Capital helped racism flourish in Annapolis. We can do better” a 22 copy of which is attached to this Resolution; and

23
24 WHEREAS, The Capital Gazette concluded its article by stating “We cannot change the past, 25 but we can learn from it. We believe we have made progress, but hope black 26 residents of this community will continue to tell us how The Capital can change to 27 help end the racism that is holding us all back. We’re listening”; and

28
29 WHEREAS, the “Racial Equity in Media Consortium” was formed to address the racial inequity 30 in all forms of media and is comprised of many community leaders who are 31 concerned with combatting racism, including local and state elected officials, 32 representatives from the clergy and private sector, and notable advocacy 33 organizations including the Anne Arundel County Branch of the NAACP, the 34 United Black Clergy, the Caucus of African American Leaders (CAAL), and the 35 Annapolis Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.; and

36
37 WHEREAS, the Consortium has met with multiple media outlets and have shared a template for 38 self-evaluation of equity practices within their organizations; and

39
40 WHEREAS, the Annapolis City Council urges all media organizations to use the template, or 41 another of their choosing, on an annual basis to continue to evaluate their progress 42 in developing equity in media best practices; and

43
44 WHEREAS, the Annapolis City Council calls on all media outlets in Anne Arundel County, the 45 State of Maryland, and nationwide to offer apologies in recognition of their past 46 practices.
