AN ORDINANCE concerning

Development Review Process Amendments

FOR the purpose of clarifying the notice requirements for community meetings; clarifying the project applicability requirements for required community meetings; designating the Office of the Mayor as the point of contact for obtaining a list of associations whose membership could be affected by a proposed development; making minor editorial corrections; and matters generally relating to the review process for all significant and substantial projects.

BY repealing and re-enacting with amendments the following portions of the Code of the City of Annapolis,
2018 Edition
20.08.020
21.10.010
21.10.020

SECTION I: BE IT ESTABLISHED AND ORDAINED BY THE ANNAPOLIS CITY COUNCIL that the Code of the City of Annapolis shall be amended to read as follows:

TITLE 20 - SUBDIVISIONS

CHAPTER 20.08 - PROCEDURE GENERALLY-PRE-APPLICATION

Section 20.08.020 - Pre-application procedure.

- A. Prior to the filing of an application for conditional approval of a preliminary plat (preliminary subdivision plan, general subdivision plan), the subdivider shall submit to the Planning Director plans and data as specified in Section 20.08.060. This step does not require formal application or filing of a plat with the Planning Commission.
- B. Within twenty-one days the Planning and Zoning Director shall inform the subdivider that the plans and data as submitted or as modified do or do not meet the objectives of this title. When the Planning and Zoning Director finds the plans and data do not meet the objectives of this title, the director shall state the reasons for the determination.

C. When a subdivision will contain a new street, the subdivider shall conduct a community meeting in accordance with ~~the following~~ Section 21.10.010(B), Community Meeting.:

1. ~~Before a community meeting may be held, the subdivider shall: (a) provide notice in accordance with Section 21.10.020(A) and (B) of this Code; and (b) provide notice by regular mail to community associations, including but not limited to, homeowners associations, condominium associations, resident associations, and business associations, whose membership catchment area encompasses the proposed development. The list of associations shall be provided by the Office of the Mayor to the applicant. The community meeting shall be held at a location that is reasonably accessible to such persons and community associations who reside or own property in close proximity to the land that will be subject to the application. A community meeting shall be held not earlier than one year prior to submission of an application and no later than fourteen days prior to submission of an application.~~
2. ~~Subdivider who has conducted a community meeting shall provide a written summary of the community meeting to the Planning and Zoning Director within thirty days after the conclusion of the community meeting, unless already submitted with the preliminary plat. The written summary shall include a list of meeting attendees, a summary of attendee comments, an overview of discussions related to the development proposal, and any other information the subdivider deems appropriate. The written summary shall be submitted with the application and be made available by the Planning and Zoning Director for public inspection. Anyone attending the community meeting may submit a written response to the subdivider's meeting summary to the Planning and Zoning Director, which response the Planning and Zoning Director shall include with the application file. If an application is not filed within one year after a community meeting occurs, then before the application is filed, the subdivider shall hold another community meeting to be conducted in accordance with the provisions of this section.~~

TITLE 21 PLANNING AND ZONING

Division II - Administration and Enforcement.

CHAPTER 21.10 - GENERAL APPLICATION PROCEDURES AND FEES

Section 21.10.010 - Common procedures for review of applications.

Applications submitted for review and approval pursuant to the Zoning Code ~~will~~shall be processed in accordance with the procedures of this section and any other procedures that are established in a Division II chapter in connection with a specific zoning application. The specific procedures established in other Division II chapters may reference sections of the common procedures for review of applications.

- A. Pre-application Conference. The purpose of a pre-application conference shall be to acquaint the Planning and Zoning Director with a potential application and to acquaint the potential applicant with the requirements of the zoning code, building codes, and other relevant criteria and procedures. A pre-application conference shall not be an exhaustive review of all potential issues. The pre-application conference is informational only, and is not an approval in any manner of a proposal. Prior to the submission of an application required by the zoning code, a pre-application conference with the Planning and Zoning Director shall be in accordance with the following:

1. Required Conference. A pre-application conference with the Planning and Zoning Director shall be held for the following types of applications:

- a. Major site design plan applications.
 - b. Planned development applications.
 - c. Zoning map or text amendments.
 2. Optional Conference. For all other applications, the Planning and Zoning Director may hold a pre-application conference.
- B. Community Meeting. The purpose of a community meeting is to inform persons and community associations, including but not limited to, homeowners associations, condominium associations, resident associations, and business associations, whose membership catchment area encompasses the proposed development who reside or own property in close proximity to the land that will be subject to the prospective development application, and provide ~~t~~The potential prospective applicant shall the opportunity to discuss address the items identified by the Planning and Zoning Director's checklist and receive comments and ~~identify~~ concerns about the development proposal so that the prospective applicant may ~~address~~become aware of those comments and concerns before submission and formal consideration of the application. The list of associations and their contact information shall be provided maintained by the Office of the Mayor ~~to the applicant.~~
1. Required Community Meeting. A community meeting shall be held before submission of ~~the following types of an applications: for a proposed project that meets the applicability requirements stated in that requires a certificate of adequate public facilities under Title 22 of the City Code and for a proposed subdivision that will contain a new street.~~
 - ~~a. Major site design plan applications;~~
 - ~~b. Planned development applications.~~
 2. Optional Community Meeting. For all other types of applications, a community meeting shall be optional. Whenever a required community meeting is held, the prospective applicant may hold additional optional community meetings.
 3. Before a community meeting may be held, the prospective applicant shall provide notice: ~~(a) in accordance with Section 21.10.020(A) and (B) of this Code; and (b) to community associations, including but not limited to, homeowners associations, condominium associations, resident associations, and business associations, whose membership catchment area encompasses the proposed development. The list of associations shall be provided by the Office of the Mayor to the applicant. The community meeting shall be held at a location that is reasonably accessible to the persons and associations encompassed in this paragraph who reside or own property in close proximity to the land that will be subject to the application.~~ A community meeting shall be held not earlier than one year prior to submission of an application and no later than fourteen days prior to submission of an application.
 4. A prospective applicant who has conducted a community meeting shall provide a written summary of the community meeting to the Planning and Zoning Director within thirty days after the conclusion of the community meeting, unless already submitted with the application. The written summary shall include a list of meeting attendees, a summary of attendee comments, an overview of discussions related to the development proposal, and any other information the prospective applicant deems appropriate. The written summary shall be submitted with the application and be made available by the Planning and Zoning Director for public inspection.

Anyone attending the community meeting may submit a written response to the prospective applicant's summary to the Planning and Zoning Director, which response the Planning and Zoning Director shall include with the application file. If an application is not filed within one year after a community meeting occurs, then before an application is filed, the prospective applicant shall hold another community meeting to be conducted in accordance with the provisions of this section.

- C. Application Forms and Submittals. All applications required under this Zoning Code ~~must~~shall be submitted with all required information on such forms, and in such number, as required by the Planning and Zoning Director. The Planning and Zoning Director shall have the authority to request additional information not specifically listed on the application forms to ensure compliance with this code. All applications ~~must~~shall be accompanied by required application fees in accordance with Section 21.10.050.
- D. Review for Completeness. All applications ~~must~~shall be submitted to the Planning and Zoning Director. Within no more than fifteen days of receipt of an application, the Planning and Zoning Director ~~will~~shall determine whether the application is complete. If the Planning and Zoning Director determines that the application is not complete, the Director ~~will~~shall promptly notify the applicant in writing, specifying the deficiencies of the application, including any additional information that must be supplied and that no further action ~~will~~shall be taken by the City on the application until the deficiencies are corrected.
- E. Correction of Deficiencies. If the applicant fails to correct the specified deficiencies within fifteen days of the date of notification of deficiency, the application ~~will~~shall be deemed withdrawn and ~~will~~shall be returned to the applicant. The Planning and Zoning Director, upon written request, may, for good cause shown and without any notice or hearing, grant extensions of the maximum fifteen day time limit for remedying deficiencies.
- F. Staff Review and Report. If staff reports are provided for as part of the procedures for a specific type of application required by the Zoning Code, the Planning and Zoning Director ~~will~~shall circulate an application for review by the Planning and Zoning Department and by any other City department that the Planning and Zoning Director or the decision making body deems appropriate.
- G. Application Forwarded to Decision-Making Body. Any application submitted to the Planning and Zoning Director for decision by the Planning Commission, Board of Appeals, or other decision making bodies ~~will~~shall be forwarded to that decision making body after the Director determines the application is complete.
- H. Coordinated Processing of Applications. If more than one type of application is required pursuant to the Zoning Code, the Planning and Zoning Director ~~will~~shall, to the extent possible, simultaneously process applications related to the same proposed development or activity, ~~soas~~as long as all Zoning Code requirements for a particular application are satisfied. However, if the ~~proposal~~application requires Historic Preservation Commission approval, that approval ~~will~~shall be last.

Section 21.10.020 - Notice requirements.

- A. Posting of property. If the Zoning Code Division II provisions applicable to a specific type of application provide for posting of property, unless specific notice procedures are otherwise provided for in another Zoning Code chapter or section, posting must be done follows:
