

O-16-26Forest Conservation — Program Changes to Conform with State Law*AMENDMENT 6 — Alderman Savidge

Amendment Summary:

Amendment 6 provides that this ordinance takes effect upon passage and applies to any development application that does not yet have an approved final forest conservation plan as of the effective date. Applications that have already received final forest conservation plan approval, and applications that have vested under Maryland law, including the Maryland Housing Certainty Act, are not affected.

MOTION:

- 1) On page 17, line 18, strike Section II and insert the following:

“SECTION II: AND BE IT FINALLY ESTABLISHED AND ORDAINED BY THE ANNAPOLIS CITY COUNCIL that this ordinance shall take effect upon passage and shall apply to any development application for which an approved final forest conservation plan has not been granted as of the effective date, except that this ordinance does not apply to any application that has vested under Maryland law, including an application vested under the Maryland Housing Certainty Act.”
