City Council Citation

On behalf of the residents of the City of Annapolis, we present this City Council Citation in celebration of your 60th Year in business. Congratulations! Since opening your doors in 1965, Chick and Ruth's Delly has become a beloved Main Street landmark and an symbol of Annapolis hospitality. Founded by Chick and Ruth Levitt and carried on by their family until 2017 when Keith Jones and now his son Spencer took over, the deli has welcomed generations of residents, Midshipmen, visitors and leaders from across Maryland and beyond. With its famous "Colossal Challenges," creative sandwiches, and iconic crab cakes, Chick and Ruth's has made its mark. Its walls and menus tell the story of Maryland's Capital City, where politics, community, and tradition meet over a shared meal. For six decades, Chick and Ruth's has nourished our City with food, fellowship, and great memories. We thank you for your dedication and wish you many more years of success.
