6		City Council of the
7		City of Annapolis
8		Ordinance 50-25
9		Introduced by: Alderwoman Karma O'Neill
10		Co-sponsored by: Mayor Littmann
11
12	Referred to:	Economic Matters Committee
13	AN UNCODI	IFIED ORDINANCE concerning
14	E	stablishing a 12-Month Moratorium on New Short-Term Rental Licenses
15	FOR the pur	rpose of establishing a moratorium on the issuance of new licenses for short-term
16	rentals	for a period of 12 months from the effective date of this ordinance.
17
18	WHEREAS,	City Code 17.44 et seq., sets forth the current legal requirements for obtaining a
19		short-term rental license, and this Code provision has recently been enacted with
20		terms that are in the early stages of implementation, interpretation and
21		enforcement;
22
23	WHEREAS,	Short-term rentals have proliferated in the City of Annapolis in recent years in
24		support of robust tourism and have also impacted residential neighborhoods,
25		public safety, public health and housing options;
26
27	WHEREAS,	The City of Annapolis 2040 Comprehensive Plan anticipates improving
28		residential housing options while maintaining the character and sustainability of
29		residential neighborhoods and has recognized the potential negative impact of
30		unregulated short-term rentals in achieving those objectives and recommended
31		that short-term rentals be further regulated;
32	WHEDEAC
33	WHEREAS,	The City of Annapolis has identified substantial and ongoing non-compliance
34		with short-term rental licensure requirements as noted in the August 19, 2025,
35		City Planning and Zoning Annual Report on Short-Term Rentals, which estimates
36		licensure non-compliance to be 49.5% of all short-term rentals operating in the
37		City;

1 2 3 4 5	WHEREAS,	Non-compliant short-term rentals and potentially excess short-term rentals may impact affordable housing options, undermine residential neighborhoods, undermine other important commercial activities related to other licensed hospitality and housing rentals, and negatively impact community harmony and equity, public safety and public health;
6 7 8 9 10	WHEREAS,	There is significant community interest in assuring short-term rental regulatory compliance with respect to unlicensed short-term rentals and avoiding the adverse effects of short-term rentals on neighborhoods and housing options;
11 12 13 14 15	WHEREAS,	A temporary moratorium on new short-term rental licenses will allow the City Administration and City Council a critical and necessary opportunity to implement new City Code enforcement provisions, determine a more accurate status and impact of short-term rentals city-wide, and consider potential amendments to strengthen current City law;
17 18 19 20 21	WHEREAS,	The City of Annapolis Charter, Article III, Section 2, authorizes the City Council to take actions to regulate land use, issue licenses, advance public safety and public health and protect general well-being, including implementing temporary moratoriums;
22 23	WHEREAS,	The purpose of this moratorium is to provide the Annapolis City Council with adequate time to:
24 25 26		a. Conduct a comprehensive study of the impacts of short-term rentals on residential neighborhoods, housing availability and affordability, and community character;
27 28		b. Review and analyze short-term rental regulations adopted by other jurisdictions;
29 30		c. Evaluate the effectiveness of current zoning and land use regulations as they relate to short-term rentals;
31 32		d. Hold public hearings and gather input from residents, property owners, and other stakeholders;
33 34 35		e. Draft, review, and adopt comprehensive short-term rental regulations that balance property rights with community interests and the preservation of residential neighborhoods;
36 37 38 39 40	WHEREAS,	This ordinance does not affect special events that have been approved by the City Council, such as the annual Spring and Fall sailboat and powerboat shows held in Annapolis, as well as any other special events designated by a resolution from the City Council.; and
41

1 2 3 4 5	WHEREAS	S, The City Council finds that a temporary moratorium of 12 months is necessary and reasonable for the due consideration, implementation and assessment of recently adopted resolutions, and necessary to consider additional actions or potential amendments further, as and if recommended by the mandated assessment.
