Why are you interested in serving on a board or commission?

I'm interested in serving on a city commission because I care about my community and want to find meaningful ways to contribute to the lives of of the people who call Annapolis home. I've worked as a teacher and now as a corporate trainer, and throughout my career I've stayed focused on helping people learn, grow, and thrive. I've taught students from many backgrounds, including those experiencing housing insecurity, and I've seen firsthand how critical access to both quality education and safe, stable housing is to long-term success. As someone whose family has deep roots in Annapolis, I care about preserving the city's history while helping it grow into an even more inclusive place. I'm especially passionate about educational equity and would be honored to serve on the Education Commission, though I'd be equally glad to contribute to the Affordable Housing and Community Equity Development Commission. I look forward to the opportunity to serve the city that I love.
